When passengers check-in they will receive their ticket that can be printed. This ticket includes their travel information, including the QR code, as well, as instructions for how to enter the platform when they reach the gate at the train station. Brussels Airport's train station and stations in the Netherlands have automatic ticket access gates.

Passengers travelling beyond Rotterdam Centraal Station or Antwerp Station will receive a "Second Page" with instructions on how to transfer trains.

The screenshot shows the 'Step 1: Retrieve Order' page on the AccesRail website. The page has a navigation bar with icons for 'Retrieve Order', 'Passport Selection', 'Travel Information', 'Email Confirmation', and 'Check-in Complete'. The main content area includes a blue sidebar with the instruction 'Please complete all steps to finalize check-in for your journey.' The main form area is titled 'Step 1: Retrieve Order' and contains the following fields:

- First name: Input field labeled 'First name'
- Last name: Input field labeled 'Last name'
- E-ticket number: Input field with a dropdown arrow, labeled 'Your 13 character electronic ticket number'
